FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

“Presentation nights are rituals that provide schools with the opportunity to share their purpose, motivation, culture and success with the wider community.”

Tuesday the 7th of December is the date of the Eudunda Area School Presentation Night. This night is an important evening in the lives of our students, it is the last official function for our Year 12 students, it marks the graduation point of our Year 6 students as they enter high school and it allows us to celebrate all the great things that happen within our school on a day to day basis. Many children will win awards, some children a number of awards, however all children need to be congratulated on the efforts they have made with their learning, well-being and development this year as part of the EAS community.

It's great that I can inform the community about our staffing for 2022. The table below indicates the teaching staff that will be at EAS next year and their likely role.

It is great that we have continuity in our staffing, and welcome our new staff members Jake Birchmore and Jenna Doherty, however it is sad that Adam Stribley, Jo Lange and Chloe Papavasiliou are leaving EAS after contributing many years of great service to our school.

Week 9 will be Activities Week. Students in the secondary years have selected activities for the week which will run on a set timetable, and there are no formal lessons during this week.

Final student reports will be available on Thursday, Week 10 for collection by students or parents. Please sit with your child/ren and reflect on their efforts throughout the year, and ask them about the strengths they have displayed, and the areas on which they can improve.

Finally, I would like to wish everyone in the school community a Merry Christmas and a Safe and Happy New Year.

AGRICULTURAL NEWS

A big thank you to Jack Mosey for coming in to shear the school sheep and pass on some industry knowledge. Jack came to shear our 12 school sheep, and our Ag Club students were there to learn from Jack and help with roustabout duties. It's always great to have Eudunda Area School alumni return to visit and share their post school experiences. Jack is currently shearing 3-4 days a week whilst also working on the family farm.

FROM OUR PSW

G'day All,

Holiday plans

I do hope that all is well for you and that you are looking forward to the holidays. I am going to Alice Springs and a couple of Aboriginal communities with my mate who owns a carnival. I enjoy putting the rides up and down.

Holiday camp

As most of you are aware I run the Fusion centre in Kapunda. I can, depending on interest, organise a camp towards the end of January for students 12 years old and up. As Fusion is a Christian organisation there may be some Christian things happen, like saying "grace" before a meal and an expectation that you agree to our values which are "Build people up, Help People grow, Because people matter!" For more info on Fusion you can check out online www.fusion.org.au If you are interested please email me at Dave.Scheerhoom@fusion.org.au by the 3rd of December. Don't let lack of money stop you, we can work something out together.

School Values – commitment

Teachers and parents have this in common – they often want to Hi-Five their kids/students, sometimes in celebration, sometimes 'in the face'. Young people are a source of joy and frustration. Commitment is what keeps you going through the highs and lows. It can be seen as being dedicated to a cause or as an obligation that restricts freedom. I hope that for you it is a dedication to a cause. The big question – how can we help our young people to learn commitment? One way is by showing them by example. Another way is to help them set goals and then checking in on progress. Be very generous in your praise and very stingy with your criticism.

Cheers,

DAVE SCHEERHOORN
Pastoral Support Worker
